New to this lark

Dad's n kids only, a mum-free-zone. It is the perfect win-win situation. You get to spend some special time with your child, a few cuddles and lots of laughs. 'Coc' around with loads of gadgets, have a few beers and tell filthy campfire jokes. The kids have a wild time with loads of playmates and to keep everyone happy, Mum also has the weekend off too!

This is year 16, COC is a loose gathering of ever expanding friends who either know me, or know someone locally with kids. It is a relaxed few days where individual dads meet up with friends and get to know their kids better, you can do as little or as much as you want. The venue is near Burley, usually 1½ hours from west London, but on Friday night traffic is often heavy. Directions will be provided two weeks ahead, as will an info sheet, giving more specific details and tips on what to bring and how to organise the trip.

One of those spooky phenomenon, those that stay both nights are a lot more relaxed than the 'one nighters'. There is nothing more demoralizing than struggling to erect your tent for hours on end and then to have to take the blooming thing down less than 24 hours later. So do try to make it on the Friday night.

The really good stuff

Proper adventure for everyone, both dads n kids. You will need to book in advance with me, ONE of these activities per person. You choose, but first come first served, please express a 1st & 2nd choice. I need to know anyone 17 stone or over, plus any kids 5 years or under.

New- shelter building- will yours survive the rain test?

Treasure Hunt- hidden treasure, explore with maps & riddles

Tree climbing- prusiking, upward abseiling tall trees with rope

Low ropes- jump, swing, balance as a team, fun @ laughter

High ropes- dead high in the tree tops, who's brave enough?

Canoes- 'red injun' style open cockpit doubles, kiddie friendly

Kayaks- enclosed cockpit, single use, double blade paddles

Sit-on-top Kayaks- double seat, better for the less confident

Raft building- working as a team, well that's the idea, damp!

Zip wire- most popular, long zip across the lake, will stay dry.

Archery- must be 8 years or older to pull the back the string.

I want more- Extras activities can be pre-booked and purchased directly with Avon Tyrell, but do it well ahead.

COC costs	Dad plus 1 child	£98
	plus 2 kids	£147
	plus 3 kids	£196
	Extra person	£49

This is for two night's camping, with one outdoor activity per person. If you stay just one night, or decline to take the activity then there is no reduction or refund.

Our 7th Annual family camping weekend is one not to be missed. The weekend is an opportunity to spend time with your families, or spend time trying out new things without them! There's loads to do with all workshops taking place under cover. Come rain or shine, this weekend is a truly delightful camp for both novice and experienced campers. New this year is our yoga workshop alongside our popular circus skills, singing and junk percussion

If you would like to come along as a daytripper for the Saturday workshops, then do feel free to come and join in the fun, but sleep in your own bed (see cost below).

With over 16 years experience of running camps, our team are here to help you get the most out of the weekend. This is a small intimate camp, with less than 200 people. Come and enjoy the great outdoors, some amazing workshops set amidst the beautiful Surrey Hills. with exclusive use of the stream side field at The Mellow Farm Campsite. All bookings are personally administered,

Mellow costs
